A Fond Farewell • Happy Holidays from CASTA

Thank you all for your friendship over the last 15 years. I served as CASTA's Executive Director. As my CASTA career ends the last day of 2006, I have great memories of nearly 16 years of a shared passion for development of Colorado transit services. Many of you worked very hard to make the Fall Conference in Grand Junction memorable for me and it was certainly that. The taste of "roast Jeanne", the anticipation of a trip to Ireland in June and your smiling familiar faces keep coming back.

Elena Wilken, has been hired as CASTA's new Executive Director and is well prepared to take the association to the next level. She will hit the ground running January 1, 2007.

In January, I will begin work in my new home office as the owner of Erickson Consulting, LLC. The plan is to work half time overall. For the first three months of 2007, I will complete the submittal of the 2008 Colorado Transit Coalition request to Congress on a consulting basis.
